Our Commitment to Your Privacy

This Privacy Policy applies to www.tpg.com (the “Site”), which provides information about the affiliated entities commonly referred to as “TPG”. This privacy policy only applies to information we may collect from visitors to the Site or that visitors to the Site may provide through the Site.

Information We Collect

This Site does not directly collect any personal information. You may, however, choose to contact us by email, in which case we will collect your name, email address and any other information that you chose to provide to us. Please do not provide personal information that you do not want us to have.

In addition, we may gather information about you automatically through your use of the Site, e.g., your IP address and how you navigate our Site. TPG may collect information about you by using cookies, tracking pixels and other technologies (collectively, “Tools”). We may use this information to better understand, customize and improve the user experience of our websites, services and offerings. For example, we may use web analytics services such as Google Analytics that leverage Tools to help us understand how visitors engage with and navigate our Site. Information on how Google Analytics collects and processes your data is available here: www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/.

Your web browser can be set to allow you to control whether you will accept cookies, reject cookies, or to notify you each time a cookie is sent to you. If your browser is set to reject cookies, the Site may not recognize you when you return to the website, and some website functionality may be lost. The Help section of your browser may tell you how to prevent your browser from accepting cookies. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage or delete them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

How We Use the Information We Collect

If you choose to provide information to us, for example by email, the information is used for the purpose you provided it to us. For example, if you provide your contact information in an inquiry to us, we will use your contact information to process and respond to that inquiry and any related activity that may result from your inquiry.

How We Share the Information We Collect

We may share your personal information TPG Global LLC and its affiliates for the purposes described in this Policy.

We may share personal information with service providers that perform services on our behalf such as payment service providers, analytics providers, and hosting providers. In accordance with applicable law, we have entered into legally binding agreements requiring them to use or disclose personal information only as necessary to perform services on our behalf or comply with applicable legal requirements.

In addition, we may disclose personal information about you (a) if we are required or permitted to do so by law or legal process, for example due to a court order or a request from a law enforcement agency, (b) when we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to prevent physical harm or financial loss, (c) in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual fraudulent or other illegal activity, and (d) in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets (including in the event of a reorganization, dissolution, or liquidation).

Links to Third-Party Websites

The Site may contain links to other web sites. We have no control over and are not responsible for the privacy policies or practices of such sites. Whenever you link to another web site, you may be asked to provide registration or other information. Information Security

We maintain appropriate technical and organisational measures designed to protect your personal information against loss or accidental, unlawful or unauthorised, alteration, access, disclosure or use. Unfortunately, no data transmission or storage system can be guaranteed 100% secure. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure, please notify us immediately.

Do Not Track

Do Not Track ("DNT") is a privacy preference that users can set in their web browsers. When a user turns on DNT, the browser sends a message to websites requesting that they don't track the user. TPG does not change its practices, described elsewhere in this privacy policy, in response to Do Not Track browser settings or signals. For information about DNT, visit www.allaboutdnt.org.

Third parties may collect personal information about your online activities over time and across different websites, including your use of this Site. This Privacy Policy does not apply to, and we are not responsible for, the practices of third parties that collect your personal information.

How long we keep information

The time period for which we keep personal information depends on the purposes for which we collected it. In all cases we keep it for as long as necessary to fulfil those purposes. We will then delete this personal information unless we are required to preserve your personal
